Schedule of Real Estate Other Loans

Applicant Name: _____ _____

Federal regulations prohibit lenders from lending more than a certain amount to any one borrower. For purposes of these federal regulations, "one borrower" includes the borrower itself along with any other person or entity that has a substantial relationship with the borrower. Accordingly, Applicant must list below all loans made by any financial company (including affiliates, subsidiaries, successor and predecessor entities) to the Applicant as well as all loans to any: (a) person or entity directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by or under common control with the Applicant, (b) joint venture in which the Applicant is a principal, (c) association, trust (including a business trust) or estate of which the Applicant is a beneficiary or trustee, (d) person or entity from which the Applicant received a direct benefit from the proceeds of such loans, and (e) person or entity involved in a common enterprise involving the Applicant, where the expected source of repayment for such loans is the same for each borrower in the common enterprise. Each person or entity listed in the previous sentence is a "Borrowing Entity" for the purposes of this Schedule of Real Estate and Other Loans.

Schedule of Real Estate: List all real estate holdings of Borrowing Entity and key principals of Borrowing Entity (include real estate that is owned "free and clear", funded by other lenders and/or funded by any company).
